Corporate

Client companies are used for many purposes: portfolio investment, trading, property investment, patent, royalty and copyright holding, ship and aircraft ownership. We also administer companies used by expatriates, entertainers, sportsmen and professionals as part of their international planning.

Many of our offices offer establishment, administration and statutory representation services for Special Purpose Vehicles (SPVs), Limited Liability Companies and Partnerships used in the structuring of asset based securities lending, aircraft financing and long term capital project financing.

Executive Pension & Share Ownership Programmes

The increased international mobility of executive and technical personnel has led to the establishment by many companies of pension and share incentive programmes for personnel whose residency in any one country may be of limited duration. We act as trustees and administrators of these structures which includes providing clients with comprehensive reporting of contributions, investment performances and distributions.

Trusts

Trusts continue to be a convenient and flexible planning tool in international estate and asset protection planning. Our trust clients include many international companies and high net-worth families who seek the benefits of having an independent trustee administer their assets.

Our trustee services are offered in Bahamas, British Virgin Islands, Canada, Cayman Islands, Cyprus, Guernsey, Hong Kong, Isle of Man, Jersey, Malta, Mauritius, Nevis, New Zealand, Singapore, United Kingdom and the United States.

The underlying assets of the trusts we administer include investment and operating companies, bank and brokerage accounts, properties, aircraft and luxury yachts.

We also establish and administer Private Trust Companies where a family wishes to retain exclusive control of the trustee.

International Philanthropy

We are able to provide administrative support to international high net-worth families who wish to contribute to domestic and international charities. Our international philanthropy service also assists these families to monitor the financial assistance given to the organisations they are assisting.

Funds

Through our dedicated fund services division, Trident Fund Services, Trident Trust is ranked among the largest administrators of hedge and private equity funds. We provide administration services to more than 400 funds with combined assets in excess of US$30 billion.

We offer the investment management community a comprehensive fund administration service that includes accounting, portfolio and shareholder administration, subscription and redemption processing, net asset valuation calculation, corporate administration, dividend distribution and shareholder communications. Our services include the administration of Shariah compliant funds.

Our fund services are offered in Cayman Islands, Guernsey, Jersey, Luxembourg, Malta, Singapore, Mauritius, British Virgin Islands, Bahamas and the United States.

Institutional

A growing number of financial institutions are today seeking to outsource their fiduciary services to independent organisations like Trident Trust for strategic reasons, to avoid conflicts of interest and for cost and service quality reasons. We have broad, practical experience of assisting such institutions whether it be the acquisition of an existing fiduciary operation or the direct transfer of existing fiduciary relationships to Trident Trust.

Family Office Service

International high net-worth families with complex and geographically diverse personal and business interests can benefit from involving an experienced, independent trust professional in a family's international financial and generational planning. Trident Trust's Family Office Service expands our traditional fiduciary services through the assignment to an individual family of a qualified Trident Trust professional. The professional's role is to offer a family an independent perspective on the multiple decisions these families are required to take that may affect their interests and to take responsibility for the implementation of the family's planning decisions.

Maritime & Aircraft Services

For the commercial vessel, luxury yacht and private aircraft sectors we offer registration, crewing and personnel services, accounting support and administration of the ownership structures of vessels and aircraft. Our crew management service allows ship-owning groups to cost-effectively centralise their management and payroll functions in well-recognised marine jurisdictions.
